What's the word on luxurious pampering in West Hollywood? SPA.

Pulling back the heavy frosted glass door and stepping into the European-style SPA at Sunset Marquis shuts out the cares of the world outside and transports you to a world of relaxation. Iridescent tiled walls shimmer like sunlight on water, the friendliest of staff greet you, and serene music soothes away the static of the work day.

Whether you pop in for a quick polish change on your pedicure or opt for a full day of luxury in your own, private, spacious treatment room with massage beds by Porsche (yes, that Porsche), with shower and separate toilet room, there's no need to worry about making small talk with strangers in the waiting room or wondering where to go for your next appointment; the therapists come to you.

Call or come visit us today to arrange a custom course of treatments designed just for you.
